ROMAN CAMP

COUNTRY HOUSE & RESTAURANT

W e l c o m e

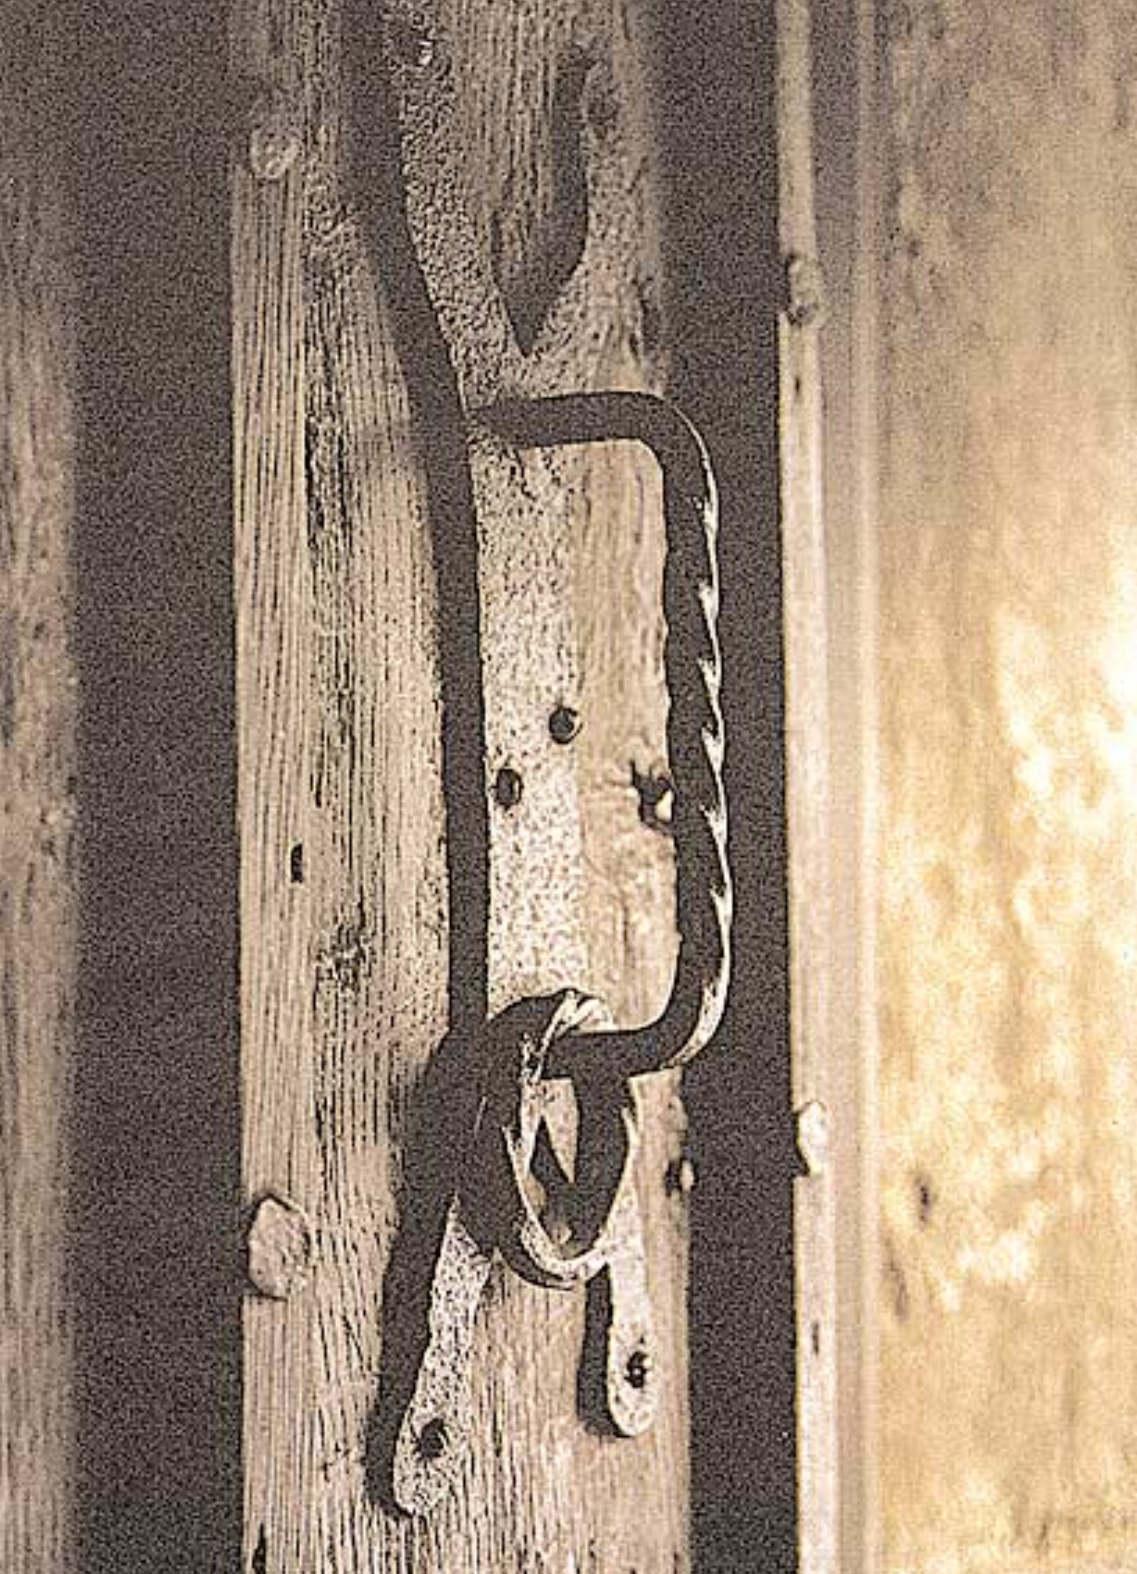

HERE is a place steeped in Scottish history.

A place of quietness and tranquillity – a secret place removed from the frenetic pace of the world outside.

A place of warmth and comfort that speaks to you and softly tells you ...to unwind and indulge yourself.

WELCOME TO ROMAN CAMP COUNTRY HOUSE.

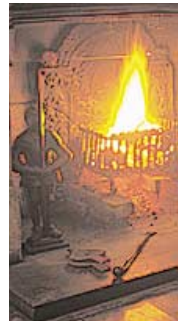

Retreat

THE journey is over as you approach the tree lined driveway. Already there is a sense of quiet – a moment of adjustment as you make your way to the front door to lift the latch on the time worn oak doors and cross the stone flagged floor.

Around you rich colours, warming light thrown from open fires and the freshness of cut flowers from the walled garden fill the senses. Pause and feel the special, indefinable atmosphere of a house full of history and centuries of gracious living.

SETTLE in the drawing room, in the warmth of a summer day, the windows open - the sound of the gently tumbling river carrying in the air – rest a while after lunch and contemplate the day...

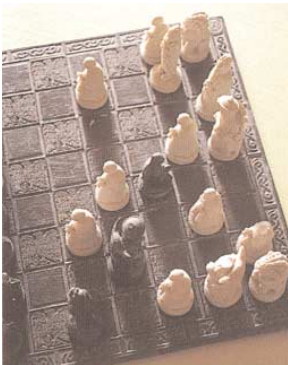

...or on a winter's afternoon, by the fireplace to quietly read, play chess or enjoy the pleasure of relaxed conversation over tea.

R e l a x

STEP deeper inside the house to the library with its rich oak panelling and secret chapel. A wonderfully calming room and a perfect place in which to hide away at any time of the day. To sit by the quietly crackling log fire on a cold winter day or wind down in the evening after dinner, feel yourself drawn into your surroundings and peacefully reflect on life.

OUR kitchens at Roman Camp are renowned. We have access to the freshest and highest quality ingredients and daily prepare dishes reflecting seasonality using natural Scottish produce combined with contemporary cooking styles and tastes.

Our main restaurant is an inspiring oval room of elegant proportions, softly decorated in a modern, classical style. By evening, with candles lit on tables laid with crystal and silverware, magic transcends the room.

R e l i s h

FOR more intimate dining, we have a number of smaller rooms, which can be set for special occasions to reflect mood or cater for private parties.

A room in which to start the day or retreat to as evening turns to night – sumptuous, relaxed and pampered.

Each of our bedrooms has a distinctive style and character of its own and all are designed, furnished and decorated to ensure your stay is as comfortable as possible.

Rest

WITH windows looking over the gardens - you may wake to the peace of a summer morning or perhaps draw the curtains on a sparkling, frosted winter evening.

To reflect on days of relaxation. Moments of quiet and stillness. Happy hours in good company. Summer breezes carrying the scents of a flower filled garden. The sound of the river's passing journey by the garden. To sit by warming open fires as the day slows on winter afternoons. And always, to enjoy the best of food and wines.

“In the evening we shall remember and in the morning we shall not forget.”

ROMAN CAMP COUNTRY HOUSE AND RESTAURANT.

THE ROMAN CAMP Country House and Restaurant lies in 20 acres of gardens by a gentle bend of the River Teith close to the country town of Callander in the county of Perthshire. The house, dating from 1625 and originally built as a hunting lodge for the Dukes of Perth, was developed as an hotel in 1939 and has quietly held a reputation since this time as one of Scotland's finest country house retreats.

We welcome guests to stay with us, at any time throughout the year and are pleased to organise wedding parties and private functions by arrangement.
